#girlsgovernvideocontest Participant Registration Form

The #girlsgovern campaign asks girls to either finish the statement “The main issue I think the next President should tackle is______. I think a way to solve it is ________.”

Through the #girlsgovern campaign we set out to achieve the following goals:

1. Give girls a platform to share their ideas in the 2016 election.
2. Prompt girls to think about the issues that impact their lives and communities.
3. Demonstrate for girls how they can change their world through advocacy and political leadership.
4. Prove that girls have a vital role to play in politics as leaders and that girls do contribute substantive ideas for solving the nation’s biggest problems.

Participation Guidelines:

1. Print and complete the Photo & Video Release form (if under the age of 19 must have parent signature too)
2. Submit a two-minute video stating the most important issue that the future president should bear in mind.
3. Email the photo/video release form to office@globalgirlmedia.org and give the full name and age. Only the participant’s first name will be displayed in the caption that will be added to the video.
4. Upload the video to YouTube.
